And now for Goddard commencement!

Noise continues to be quite a Noise place.

Colt has stopped running in the Rhode Island senatorial race.

If anyone should ask you what you are today tell him you are a Woodman.

It's a cur and a coward who runs a person down and never stops, whether riding in an automobile or wagon.

The Rutland judge who imposed a fine of $50 for selling watered milk undoubtedly squeezed the water out.

Grover Cleveland's attacks of indigestion are getting to be more frequent than Bryan's attacks of presidential itch.

When our Italian citizens go back to Italy they can celebrate the Fourth of July over there for it's going to be Garibaldi day.

Lieutenant Governor Prouty does not seem to be downcast about his chances for governor for he told the Rutland high school seniors that there is a chance right here in Vermont without going away.

It has taken Darwin Kingsley just eighteen years to rise from an inspector of agencies to the presidency of the New York Life Insurance Co. Insurance offers aluring rewards as a career for industrious young men.—Concord Monitor.

And it takes less time than that to unmake some of them even in the insurance business.

The steerage on a certain trans-Atlantic liner which docked at Boston one day this week furnishes interesting data. There were 407 Russians, 310 Scandinavians, 248 Austrians, 161 English, 148 Irish, 135 Finnish, 120 Servians, 50 Americans, 38 Turks, 36 Greeks, ten Scotch, eight French, four Germans, three Dutch, three Flemish, two Australians, two Africans, one Italian, one Welsh. Are we a cosmopolitan nation?

OBSERVANCE OF MEMORIAL DAY ON WANE!

After looking over the present day observance of the nation's memorial to its dead, the Monumental News comes to the conclusion that the day is on the wane. The conclusions of the contemporary are these: "Were a consensus of opinion to be taken on the popularity of Memorial day, it is more than probable that in certain respects we should find it waning. This should not be, and every citizen of the country should exercise himself to promote a rightful recognition of the anniversary. It is due to the men who courageously laid down their lives to give this great country a new birth, that this annual tribute of reawakened memory of their sacrifices should be steadfastly maintained and appropriately rendered. It can easily be regarded as an annual lesson on the higher patriotism, which the allurement of frenzied business on this particular day are very likely seriously to impair. Memorial day means a vast deal to us as a nation, and as a national observance must be effectively observed."

Speaking from the standpoint of Vermont, The Times feels justified in stating that the observance of Memorial day is not on the wane. As the years roll the scenes of the Civil War further away there must necessarily be a loosening of the grasp of the true conception of the day in the popular mind, if there are no checks; the younger generations and the newer arrivals to the country being more unmindful of the sacrifices of the days of early 60's.

SUMMER TROUSERS

"Life is a species of energy, and each man expends his energy in those things which chiefly delight him."—Aristotle.

Here are clothes for the energetic. Shirts that will stand the strain. Trousers that will hold their shape.

Today a special sale of Outing Trousers in flannel, serges, dark and fancy chevots. $2.00 to $7.00.

WE CLEAN, PRESS AND REPAIR CLOTHING.

PHROGERS & CO.

174 North Main St., Barre, Vt.

But here in Vermont where the memories of the great struggle are firmly rooted in the popular mind and where the patriotic spirit refuses to allow the neglect of a duty there is as much of a regard for Memorial day as ever. During the observance last month there was apparently an increasing interest taken in the exercises in practically all the cities and towns of the state. From only a very few have we heard reports of failure to follow the long-established custom of a general public recognition of the day, and only from a few others did we hear of the lack of interest. This leads to the conclusion that Memorial day is not on the wane so far as Vermont is concerned. If it unfortunately be that the observance of the day is being neglected in other parts of the country, then there should be no steps lost to preserve to the nation one of its greatest of all days, through the public schools, the platform and the press. It's time to begin now.

JINGLES AND JESTS

Betty's Discovery.
"The rhinos are Italian birds, I'm sure, because," said little Betty, "I see them eating worms out there just as Italians eat spaghetti!"
